Guidelines for ReMA Gulf Coast Region Scholarship Applicants

- Applicants must be a dependent of an employee, in good standing, of the Gulf Coast Region of the Recycled Materials Association (ReMA). The member firm must be a member of the Gulf Coast Region. The employee must have been employed by the current ReMA member company for at least one year.
- 2. Applicants must intend to pursue studies at an accredited educational institution designed to meet the requirements for an academic, professional, or occupational degree conferred by a college, university, technical school, or other accredited school as listed by the U.S. Department of Education at: http://ope.ed.gov/accreditation/Search.aspx. Applicants must be accepted to the educational institution.
- 3. The applicant must be the individual who requires financial aid in order to attend college.
- 4. Dependents of officers and principals (owners, partners, etc.) are not eligible.
- 5. A letter or resume of his/her personal history that includes school activities, extracurricular activities, accomplishments or awards, hobbies, personal goals, etc., and reason for financial need.
 - → A school transcript from the most recent school year.
 - → A completed Gulf Coast Region Scholarship Application form (copy included)

 A letter of recommendation from his/her parent's employer (the Gulf Coast Region member)

AND

- → An essay that answers ONE of the questions:
 - a. What do you admire about the work your parent(s) or guardian does in the scrap business, how has it impacted your life?
 - b. How have world events in the last couple of years changed your career path? Please submit your answers in $8^{1}/2 \times 11$ format, typed and single spaced.
- Scholarships may be awarded on a continuing basis. Scholarship recipients must reapply each year for additional scholarship funding.
- The applicant will be responsible for any costs over the amount of the scholarship.
- Scholarship recipients will be required to submit enrollment verification prior to release of scholarship funds.
- The scholarship committee will announce the scholarship recipients at the annual Gulf Coast Region summer convention. Best of luck to all applicants. Thank you for your help in making this scholarship program a success.
